Controversies

Two disgruntled former members, who will remain nameless, have and continue to launch relentless, baseless attacks against the Gentle Wind Project and its current and former members.

These former members have and continue to use their considerable wealth and political connections to intimidate, threaten, and harass. Their methods have included extortion, bribery, hacking, wiretapping, and physical violence. They have used both legal and non-legal means to destroy in a few years what took GWP members more than 20 years of selfless work to build.

The most important question to ask is this; if GWP was and is a dangerous cult, as our former members propose, then why and how did it operate for more than 20 years without a single registered complaint to the local, state, and or federal authorities?

Before our disgruntled members took up their destructive cause we had been operating for 20 years without incident, with thousands of registered members, and hundreds of thousands of people touched by our healing instruments. We had phenomenal success rates, and many admirers. But what we didn't have was money, enough money to fight a well-funded relentless and sustained legal attack. Unfortunately, as in many legal battles, money, not evidence tipped the scales of justice in their favour, and GWP was forced to concede. Left broke and disheartened we learned that justice isn't always blind.
